My piece of ham just oinked!

Hi! My name's Peter. I live down the street.

the president's address

Advent Is.
But too often
The human dialectic
Becomes Either
"Do I eat a peach?"
Or
"Shall I part my hair behind?"

At least
"Where do we go from here?"
Provides the greater Potential
Of being hoisted
By one's own petard.

Better to go out with a bang
Than a whimper.
Bravo for birth-comings!

In your deliberations
Therefore
Dare more than Prufrock.
Like Ophelia's Dane
Grapple
With gargantuan issues.
To prefer not to
May avoid a momentary madness
But Zarathustra said it best:
To give birth to a dancing star
One must become
A chaos.

Advent is
And shall be.
Who can answer the unanswerable?
How fine
That there may be
No answer
But rather Answers.

dedication

We talk and You listen.
We complain and You explain.
We cry and You comfort.
We laugh and You laugh along.
We are angry and You soothe us.
We are indifferent and You challenge us.

In your silence you seem to be saying to us:
"Tomorrow you will have to play a much more difficult piece.
Tomorrow, when the audience is beginning to listen for wrong notes,
And you no longer have me in the wings —
Then we shall see what you can really do."

Yesterday we hardly expected that by Today you would have prepared us so well for Tomorrow.

Because of this, you have won our friendship and respect.
We, the Class of 1972, dedicate our yearbook
To you, Dean Huntington.

Debbie Scott
Helena Berry
Sally Rich
Marianne Farnsworth

The Honor System at Mount Vernon is an integral part of every student's life, and it is the job of the Judicial Board to familiarize students with every aspect of the Code. The Honor Code is more than just a list of rules — it is a combination of loyalty, respect and esteem for the ideals of the College. The Honor Code deals with both academic and social aspects of the school. The Judicial Board deals with all major infractions of the Honor Code.

student coordinating committee

The Student Coordinating Committee is a student-run campus organization which plans and coordinates lectures, readings and activities for the college throughout the year. With attention focused mainly on topical issues, it serves to integrate Mount Vernon more fully into Washington's active political and intellectual life.

bell cote

This staff is responsible for the creation, organization and publication of the yearbook. Its members have contributed their various skills in the fields of photography, layout and business in order to provide you with the Bell Cote 1972, a photo-essay of this year at Mount Vernon.

gold key

The function of Gold Key is to provide campus hostesses and Admissions aides. Members are the official hostesses in which capacity they give any visitors, students, counselors or guests a tour of campus. The Gold Key members have the opportunity of becoming familiar with the procedures of the Admissions Office and the admission requirements for new students.

vista

Deanie Goodman, Jane Silberberg, Bert Spangler, Susan Asher, President; Kate LaFortune. missing: Jane Carnevale, Belle Donner, Kim Gulley, Becky Provost, Sally Rich, Sue Schwartz.

This club is composed of volunteers who go to the inner city of Washington, D.C. to tutor black, underprivileged children. The program is supervised by "Uplift House" which is a facet of the national Vista organization. Vista members try to expose these children to new and stimulating environments by taking them on field trips to art galleries, on picnics and also to Mount Vernon campus for holiday parties.

lend a hand

1st row: Louise Pate, Penny Smith, Reta Beck, President; Connie Stern, Marianne Farnsworth. 2nd row: Sally Rich, Susan Merkel, Tania Anderson, Cynthia Colt. missing: Cynthia Pikul, Ford Boyd.

Lend-A-Hand is a group of students who expend their energy on service-oriented activities. Among the various projects they have undertaken this year are: volunteer work at area hospitals, raising money to help Bangladesh refugees, adopting Korean orphans through the foster parents program and sending handicapped children to camp at Martha's Vineyard.

Basi McAshan,
Managing Editor

Billie Truesdell,
Editor-in-Chief

post script

Post Script is the new school newspaper which debuted on campus in the winter of '72. It is intended to be a more sophisticated publication than its predecessor, containing advertisements and photographs as well as editorials, interviews, articles and notices.

insight

Joni Friend and Patty Lavelle.

Insight is an organization which sponsors campus religious services, thus adding another dimension to the community life of the college. These services are held in our beautiful new Chapel.

phi theta kappa

Julie Southworth, Billie Truesdell, Melina Tumova, Michele Nelson, Jennifer Keogh, President: Carmen Cortes, Advisor. missing: Leslie Meints, Sara Churchill, Ellen Ferriter, Nancy Firth.

Recognizing intellectual achievement in American Junior Colleges, Phi Theta Kappa has as its purpose to promote scholarship, develop character and cultivate fellowship among the students. In order to join this honor society, one must rank in the upper 10% of the total enrollment of her college. In the fall of 1971, the Phi Theta Kappa Regional Convention was held at Mount Vernon with Rogers B. Morton as one of the guest speakers.

Eileen Otte, Marcia Cross, Kathy Simon, Pat Benton. missing: Lauren Lombardo, Carol Hering, Jennifer Keogh.

Thayne Taylor, Alta Wister.

Bitsy Perry, President.

The Social League is a group comprised of two representatives from each house who plan and handle most of the social functions for Mount Vernon. Who will forget the Christmas formal at the Statler Hilton, the cocktail party the following day at the East India Sporting Club, the polynesian dinner with real hula dancers, or the infamous boatride down the Potomac during Spring Weekend?

social league

OFFICERS: Jennifer Keogh, Connie Quinn, Buffy Zeller, Joan Herrick.

athletic association

The Athletic Association is a recreational organization which plans and supervises a variety of sporting events for the students. This year, AA sponsored ski trips, mixed tennis doubles, volleyball intramurals and other sports events.

curtain callers

Under the direction of Mrs. Heflin, Curtain Callers provides the college community with winter and spring dramatic productions. With talent abounding, Debby Scott and Lauren Seelye alternated top billing in the Christmas musical comedy, "Mr. Scrooge." The Theatre Workshop plans to build the sets for the spring play, "Night Must Fall."

young democrats

The Young Democrats club's purpose is to promote interest in Political activity by bringing speakers to the campus, by holding debates and by joining with neighboring college chapters in various activities.

Sara Adams, Debby Scott and Lauren Lombardo, representing the Young Democrats.

Chris Folz, representing the Young Republicans.
MEMBERS: Becky Mears, Brien Jordan, Mary Jane Wagner, Sarah Turner, Heidi Humphreys.

young republicans

The Young Republicans got off to a late but interesting start with Congressman Stewart B. McKinney speaking in the Field House at a Wine and Cheese Reception.

Mr. Eckert, Director; Pat Benton, Joni Friend, Billie Truesdell, President; Jackie Kenney, Irmeli Pylvanainen, Sue Wesp, Chris Caldwell, Wendy Hyjer. missing: Beth Shearer, Belle Donner, Patty Lavelle.

The Mount Vernon Madrigals are one of the two singing groups on campus. Meeting three times weekly under the direction of Mr. Eckert, the twelve member group offers two musical programs yearly.

madrigals

travelers

Wendy Hyjer, Mary Holt Woodson, Chris Caldwell, Jackie Kenney, Pat Jones. missing: Julia Crane.

One of the most selective clubs on campus is the Travelers. Each year many try out for this folk singing group and only three new people are chosen. It is quite an honor to be a member of Travelers and an even greater pleasure to listen to them.

Compliments of SOMERS

The End?
Not quite.
So . . .
Where do we go from here?

From here we enter an eternity, and eternity is always the greatest challenge we can meet;
we all have our goals and challenges to conquer.

Father Time is not a patient man — he is pushing us to pick up our heels, and to catch the next kite string to our destination and happiness.

The merry-go-round makes only one rotation;
if we are not prepared to catch the ring
it is possible to fall off our horses.
Be Careful!!

We all have the world at our finger tips,
it is playing OUR song.
The flame of love is lighting all of our hopes dreams and paths.
Be Careful not to blow it out.

The daisies are out now.
My, they smell good.
Shall I pick one?

The 1972 Bell Cote Staff wishes everyone
a good and happy life.
